

Analysis on the medication rule of traditional Chinese medicine in the treatment of COVID-19 patients: Erratum

In the article entitled “Analysis on the medication rule of traditional Chinese medicine in the treatment of COVID-19 patients”^[1] which published in Volume 2, Issue 2 of Acupuncture and Herbal Medicine, the following details of methods were omitted: “The ‘two hospitals in Wuhan’ means Zhongnan Hospital, Wuhan University, and Tongji Hospital, Tongji Medical College, Huazhong University of Science and Technology.

In addition, this is a retrospective study without intervening in the diagnosis and treatment of patients, and the study protocol adhered to the Declaration of Helsinki and was approved by Zhongnan Hospital of Wuhan University’s ethics committee to waive the patients’ informed consent (Approved No. 2021015K).” We apologize for this error and any inconvenience this may have caused.
